“AND WHEN YOU GAZE LONG INTO
AN ABYSS, THE ABYSS
ALSO GAZES INTO YOU.”

FRIEDRICH NIETZSCHE

Duffy London casts an eye downwards – looking to the depths of the ocean to dream up a dramatic new dining table, that introduces the majesty of the big blue to the interior.

LOOKING INTO THE ABYSS

Like all of Duffy's designs, the Abyss Table is a conversation piece as much as a functional one. But while previous works play with gravity, this new design is concerned with depth, and creates a geological cross-section as mesmerising as the sea..

A CONCEPT INSPIRED BY THE SPACE
ODYSSEY SERIES.

This monolithic design takes its inspiration from The Sentinel, a book by Arthur C. Clarke that went on to be made into the film 2001: A Space Odyssey, directed by Stanley Kubrick. A glass table top seems to balance miraculously on top of toppling monoliths, which appear to be frozen in a permanent state of impending collapse.

This mind-boggling creation appears to the naked eye to be an impossible feat, but in reality it has its foundations in real physics.

Limited edition of 25
